Referring to my discussion with you last month and your interest in the positions available to women in ORR, I thought the following might be interesting to you.

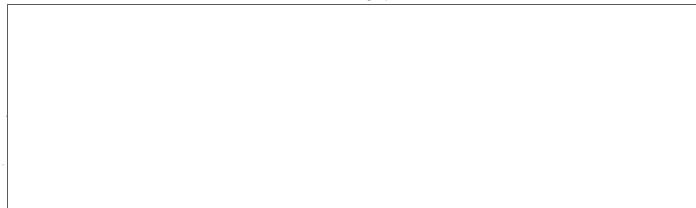

25X1
25X1

Of the professionals now on our rolls, [] are women. Of these [] are administrative assistants, [] are librarians in our Map Library, [] are editors and [] are illustrators. The balance, [], are classified as research analysts in economics and geography, the former preponderating heavily.

Gradewise the analysts break down as follows:

25X1

Branch Chief
Senior Analyst
Analyst
Junior Analyst

Many of these occupy slots calling for grades higher than their present grades; so the proportion of those in the upper brackets will doubtless increase in time.

I do hope the foregoing will assist you in steering able young women to us.

Sincerely,

RS
